

Drs. Francesca Braca, graduated in Chemistry at the University of Pisa in 2000, is a Researcher Project Manager at Laboratori ARCHA Srl since 2001. She manages, coordinates and executes research projects at European, National and Regional level & consulting activities and she is involved in conduction of R&D projects in the field of waste and wastewater analysis, management and recycling, industrial process optimization, H&S risk assessment, LCA and LCC studies. She has experience in packaging regarding compatibility between packaging and food products, she is an expert on packaging material and biodegradability and compostability analyses for certifications (TÜV Austria schemes). Drs. Braca is involved in R&D&I project proposal preparation & submission. Finally, she is the Representative of Workers for EHS aspects (Environmental, Health and Safety) and Social Accountability standards in Archa.