

POSTER SUBMISSION GUIDELINE

Guideline to propose a poster contribution for NanoInnovation 2017:

- Prepare your abstract following the template provided at the end of this guideline
- Submit your abstract online at www.nanoinnovation.eu, within the deadline reported in the NanoInnovation website
- Contribution must be of technical-scientific nature. Promotional material will be rejected
- Abstracts will be selected by the Programme Committee, basing on compliance with conference themes and objectives
- Late submissions might be refused due to limitation in the exhibition space
- Acceptance will be communicated to authors within the deadline reported in the NanoInnovation website
- Once you will receive the notification regarding acceptance of your contribution please register to the Conference following the online procedure on the Conference website.
- A limited number of posters might be selected also for an oral presentation. Authors will be contacted in due time and asked to accept or refuse the proposal.
- Posters will be displayed in the main Conference Hall (same place of coffee breaks, lunches and exhibition)
- Poster sessions will be open all the day during the event. Coffee breaks, lunch and end of the oral sessions it is when most of delegates will likely visit the poster area. Authors are free to decide whether and when to be present at the poster stand
- The poster must be in English and have the max. following dimensions: 70 cm (width) x 100 cm (height)
- The authors are responsible to bring and place their poster on the stand at the beginning of the Conference and to remove it at the end of the event
- The list of poster contributions will be uploaded on the NanoInnovation website
- Presentation of a poster requires a registration fee of 100 euro + VAT. The corresponding invoice will be sent to the address indicated in the poster template at the end of the event.

NanoInnovation 2017

Instructions and Template for Abstracts Submission

Author A (1), Author B (1), Author C (2), etc.

Name of the organization of the Authors

(Please underline the name of the corresponding author)

Please provide an abstract of your planned contribution, with the aim to describe your research and innovation activities and results and attract the audience of the event. The role of nanotechnologies and their integration with KETs in research and innovation, as well as potential/actual application areas must be highlighted within the abstract.

Please also include at the end of the text contact information of the corresponding author (address, phone, email).

Invoicing data

Institution/Name

Address

VAT Number/Fiscal Code

Communications regarding the Conference will be sent to the corresponding author. Please inform the Conference Secretariat in case the person attending the conference will be different.

Suggested length: half page. Plain text only (the abstract will be uploaded as text in the conference website)