

Dr. Oscar Amerighi (BA in Political Sciences, MA and Ph.D. in Economics)

Formerly Head of the Technological Perspectives for Sustainability Service, he currently works at ENEA Industry and Business Associations Unit, performing Business Intelligence economic and industrial analyses aimed at the exploitation of ENEA technologies. He is Member of ENEA Task Force for International Cooperation and Development and of the Direction Committee for the Framework Agreement between ENEA and the Italian Trade Agency aimed at promoting ENEA innovative technologies and related companies in new international markets.