

Sergio Attilio Jesi
Vice President
Institutional Relations Italy & Public Financing
Elettronica SpA

Sergio, 60, is a mechanical engineer, graduated at La Sapienza University in Rome, with a Master in Business Administration, obtained at Luigi Bocconi University in Milan.

In Elettronica SpA, a leading firm in the Electronic Warfare segment, since 2003, is managing the Institutional Relations activities. Special focus on the cybersecurity domain, as well, in civil and space sectors.

In the 90', he worked in Finmeccanica (Corporate), as Business Development Manager, implementing Joint Ventures, finalizing Merger & Acquisitions and Agreements in the Aerospace and Defense Sector. Then, he managed Elsacom, a Finmeccanica subsidiary, devoted to the start up of new satellites services, utilizing the Globalstar LEO satellite constellation.

Previous experiences in the telecommunication sector, in Mitel (British Telecom group), in the consulting firm KPMG and, just graduated, in the R&S center of Firestone International, now, Bridgestone, located in the outskirts of Rome.