

After her degree in law and her master in project management and auditing, she has joined ASTER in 1991 where actually is Finance for Innovation Unit Manager. The Unit is devoted to provide information and advice services as well as to develop projects and initiatives for the regional ecosystem about access to capitals and financial instruments for industrial research, innovation and technology transfer. She is also responsible of Intellectual Property area providing assistance in protection and valorisation of intellectual and industrial property, technology transfer and science-industry collaborative schemes.