

Francesco Traina has been Consultant Surgeon at Rizzoli Orthopaedic Institute (2005-2017), Clinical responsible of the Medical Technology Lab, Rizzoli, Bologna, Italy (2004-2012), has completed his PhD in Bioedical Science at Bologna University in 2015, and since 2017 is associate Professor of Othopedics at Messina University and chief of the Ortopedic Department of Messina University. He has published more than 140 papers in peer review journals and serves as an editorial board member in 2 internotional orthopaedic journals. He has been active part of 6 EU granted projects.